CALL FOR APPLICATIONS International Programs Artwork Project – 2025

The International Programs Office (IPO) and the Art Department at Reed College invite applications for an exciting opportunity to create an original artwork (7 7/8 by 10 3/4 inches (200 mm × 273 mm) inspired by one of the countries, cities, or universities where Reed has a study abroad or exchange program. Attached is an image from The New Yorker, which illustrates the type of design the IPO and the Art Department are looking for. The proposed themes for spring 2025 are:

- Bishkek (Kyrgyzstan)
- Lille (France)

We are seeking a creative and enthusiastic student artist who can bring their unique perspective to this project. Their design will celebrate the global connections of the Reed community and will be showcased as part of the International Programs Office's outreach and events. This is a paid position at the Reed student wage rate of $15.95 per hour (estimated 10-15 hours of work for each artwork).

To Apply:

Students should submit examples of their past work to demonstrate their artistic style and abilities to Alberto del Río Malo at adelrio@reed.edu and Shivani Sud at shivanisud@reed.edu.

Applicants must be current Reed students in good standing. (Criteria for the work to be done will be shared after the student is selected)

All submissions must be received by February 28, 2025.

For questions, please contact Alberto del Río Malo, Director of International Programs, Reed College, and Shivani Sud, Assistant Professor of Art History and Humanities.
